

Dedicated desk 106-EF

Corner desk by the glass door

ABOUT THIS DESK

Desk 106-EF tucks into a corner in the middle stretch of the window row, so you have a wall at your back and a broad view ahead. The birch desktop wraps around the corner, a red mesh chair rolls easily on the light wood floor, and a tall monstera stands guard beside a fully glazed door. Through the glass, trees and pink flowering shrubs catch the evening sun, and warm bulbs glow along the beams overhead.

The desk is reserved for you and open 24/7 through the Kisi phone app or a fob. Gigabit fibre and coffee are included, the phone booths are close for private calls, and the conference room is free for desk members when it is available. Around you, the floor stays quiet and professional, with no organized events pulling you away from work.

Ideal for: Solo founders, consultants and remote workers
