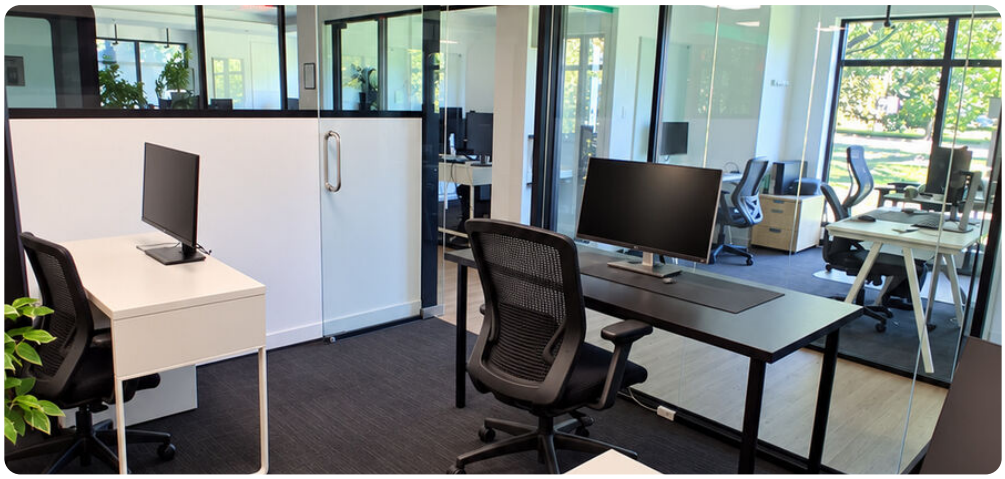
Private office 109-6

Glass-walled four-person office mid-floor



ABOUT THIS OFFICE

Office 109-6 is built mostly of glass. Black-framed glass walls on two sides, above a white half-wall, let daylight from the surrounding windows pass straight through, so the room stays bright even though it sits in the middle of the 109 area. Inside, white and black desks are arranged along the walls on charcoal carpet, with mesh task chairs and a tall potted ficus in one corner.

In the photos, a wall-mounted screen and a small whiteboard make it easy to run a quick stand-up without booking a room. The office sits beside 109-7, facing the open part of the floor, and its glass door locks when you leave. Gigabit fibre with wired ethernet, coffee, cleaning and printer access are included, with 24/7 entry by Kisi app or fob.

Ideal for: Sales teams, support crews, project teams
